Note that this verb type is of DF-4 (Derived Form-4), i.e., بَابُ إِفْعَالٍ. The little difference here is that there is an أ in the basic past tense form (أَفْعَلَ → فَعَلَ). The additional letters are carried along in all the past and imperfect forms, as can be noted above. Detailed conjugation tables for this verb (أَخْرَجَ) along with the masculine and feminine forms of أَفْعَلَ (DF-4) are given in the workbook. This is the most commonly occurring derived form in the Arabic language. Have a look at page A-10.

Surely the right course became clear from the error.
So whoever disbelieves in Taghoot (false objects of worship) and believes in Allah, then surely has grasped the most trustworthy handhold, with no break in it; and Allah is All-Hearing, All-Knowing.
