

BUSINESS EMAIL WRITING

WHY BUSINESS EMAIL WRITING MATTERS

- Creates a professional impression
- Reduces misunderstandings
- Builds credibility
- Often the first point of contact in business

TYPES OF BUSINESS EMAILS

- Inquiry Emails
  - Request Emails
  - Complaint Emails
  - Response Emails
  - Thank-you Emails
  - Follow-up Emails

BASIC STRUCTURE

- Subject Line – clear & specific
  - Greeting – use proper titles/names
  - Opening Line – state purpose politely
  - Body – short paragraphs, bullet points if needed
  - Closing Line – thank/appreciate or call to action
  - Sign-off + Signature – Sincerely, Best regards, etc.

SUBJECT LINE: BAD VS. GOOD

✗ Bad: Help

✓ Good: Request for Project File – August 2025

✗ Bad: Meeting

✓ Good: Request to Schedule Sales Strategy Meeting – Aug 15

COMMON MISTAKES

| Mistake          | Why It's Wrong       | Fix                    |
|------------------|----------------------|------------------------|
| No subject       | Gets ignored         | Always add a subject   |
| Casual tone      | Looks unprofessional | Use formal tone        |
| Long, messy text | Hard to read         | Keep it concise        |
| Wrong greeting   | Looks lazy           | Use correct name/title |
| Typos            | Hurts credibility    | Proofread              |

IMPORTANT POINTS

- Be clear – purpose early
  - Be concise – no filler words
  - Be polite – even when complaining
  - Be professional – avoid slang/emojis
  - Be accurate – dates, names, facts
  - Always proofread
